

Teachers

Make a difference to a child's life & embark on a rewarding career opportunity with Learning Links - a family-centred organisation and high quality service provider.

Learning Links has been helping families and children with learning difficulties for over 35 years. This is an opportunity to work with a multidisciplinary team of caring and committed educators, therapists, psychologists and family counsellors.

We currently have vacancies for teachers located at our Kingsford location.

We conduct small group classes for children who have learning difficulties or disabilities. Children enjoy coming to Learning Links with parents being able to observe improvement in their child's literacy and numeracy and self-esteem.

We urgently require teachers with enthusiasm and skills to work with children. Positions are currently available for set teaching hours after school and on Saturday.

Essential:

- Qualified Primary/Infants/High School or Special Education Teachers.

Desirable:

- Experience teaching children with learning difficulties.
- Training in specialist teaching methods e.g. Lindamood, Spalding, Visualising/Verbalising.
- Experience teaching across range of grades, K - 12.

New Graduates are encouraged to apply. If you are interested in joining our teaching team of committed and enthusiastic teachers, please phone Diane Peacock-Smith on 8568 8247 or email dpeacock-smith@learninglinks.org.au. Applications close 19/9/09. Working with Children Check applies.

Learning Links offers a family friendly and supportive workplace.
